The Arc of the Covenant: Jewish Educational Success on the Upper Mississippi

Earl Schwartz

“With thorough, solid research that is written in a lively and passionate style, Earl Schwartz has produced a timely study and prescription for Jewish Education that rabbis, community leaders, and parents must not ignore.”

—Jonathan Paradise, Professor Emeritus, Classical and Near Eastern Studies, University of Minnesota

ABOUT THIS BOOK

This book explores the exceptional Jewish educational success in St. Paul, Minnesota, in the latter half of the twentieth century. Illuminating the impact of these developments on the local Jewish community in revitalizing Jewish education, the book offers a constructive vision relevant to Jewish education and planning across the United States.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Earl Schwartz is a member of the Hamline University religion faculty and former director of Hamline’s Social Justice Studies program. He is the author of Moral Development: A Practical Guide for Jewish Teachers, and co-author with Rabbi Barry Cytron of When Life Is in the Balance: Life and Death Decisions in Light of the Jewish Tradition.
